

CPE Credit Eligibility at REVx 2020

AvidXchange is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors. State boards of accountancy have final authority on the acceptance of individual courses for CPE credit. Complaints regarding registered sponsors may be submitted to the National Registry of CPE Sponsors through its website: www.NASBAR registry.org.

REVx session learning objectives

REVx is a community of professionals who are passionate about improving their accounts payable and financial processes. AvidXchange's annual conference provides attendees with the opportunity to engage in hands-on training workshops, gain actionable insights from thought leaders, and geek out about AP and finance with hundreds of peers and Fintech experts. During the conference, you'll have the opportunity to: Get up-to-speed on the latest trends in finance and Fintech Engage in hands-on interactive sessions training sessions Network with 400+ peers, finance leaders, and sponsors Maintain and earn CPE credits in a variety of field of studies

Program description and knowledge level

Session descriptions and knowledge levels are provided on the event agenda tab.

Program registration requirements

General registration for the REVx conference is required to attend any of the REVx sessions. As part of your registration and attendance at REVx, your badge is scanned in each session room and you can request CPE credits that will be sent out in an email after REVx. Not all sessions qualify for CPE credits. Please check the agenda for details.

Recommended field of study, advance preparation, and prerequisites

REVx sessions fall under the following fields of study: Finance, Accounting, Software & Application, Management Services and Personal Development. There are no prerequisites or advance preparation required for any of the REVx sessions.

Type of delivery method

All REVx sessions are delivered in-person.

Amount of CPE credit

Attendees earn 1 CPE credit for each eligible 50 minute REVx session.